The American Ambassador to the Minister of Foreign Affairs

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Caracas, June 28, 1944

No. 1777

EXCELLENCY:

Authorized by my Government, I have the honor to confirm in this note, as a result of the conversations between Your Excellency and the undersigned and between the Minister of Health and Social Assistance and the Vice President of the Institute of Inter-American Affairs of the Office of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs in the United States of America, that it has been agreed between the Governments of the United States of America and of the United States of Venezuela to extend for a period of thirty months, counting from July 1 next, the cooperative program of health and sanitation which is actually being carried out by the Oficina Cooperativa Interamericana de Salud Pública, in conformity with the stipulations of the notes exchanged between Your Excellency and the undersigned on February 18, 1943.¹ The said extension shall be effected subject to the following stipulations:

FIRST. The funds furnished in accordance with the present agreement shall be invested in projects for the control of malaria and in any others, that, by mutual agreement, may be decided upon by the Minister of Health and Social Assistance or his representative and the Chief of the Field Party of the Institute of Inter-American Affairs in Venezuela or his representative.

SECOND. For the purposes of this extension, the Government of Venezuela shall contribute, at the times herein set forth, the equivalent in bolivars of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000):

During the period from the 1st of July 1944 to June 30, 1945	$150,000
During the period from the 1st of July 1945 to June 30, 1946	200,000
During the period from the 1st of July 1946 to December 31, 1946	150,000

THIRD. The Institute of Inter-American Affairs, in turn, shall contribute for the same purposes to the Oficina Cooperativa Interamericana de Salud Pública at the times herein set forth and in accordance with the exigencies of the work undertaken, the equivalent in bolivars of five hundred thousand American dollars ($500,000), through the delivery of construction materials, machinery, tools, labor wages, salaries of employees and any other supply in kind:

During the period from the 1st of July 1944 to June 30, 1945	$250,000
During the period from the 1st of July 1945 to June 30, 1946	175,000
During the period from the 1st of July 1946 to December 31, 1946	75,000

FOURTH. Any unexpended sum remaining at the expiration of the time agreed upon, both from the allotments covered by the original agreement and those contributed by reason of its extension, shall likewise be invested in the execution of the cooperative program of health and sanitation under conditions which, by mutual agreement, may be decided upon by the Minister of Health and Social Assistance or his representative, and the Chief of the Field Party of the Institute of Inter-American Affairs in Venezuela, or his representative.

FIFTH. The conditions and arrangements contained in the original agreement entered into by an exchange of notes between Your Excellency and the undersigned, on February 18, 1943, and between the Ministry of Health and Social Assistance and the Institute of Inter-American Affairs, on the 12th of the said month and year, shall continue in force and shall be applied to the execution of its extension until its termination on December 31, 1946.

This note and the reply of Your Excellency in the same terms shall constitute an agreement covering the contents of the preceding clauses.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

FRANK P. CORRIGAN

His Excellency

Dr. CARACCILO PARRA-PÉREZ,
Minister for Foreign Affairs,
